

POLICY OF PRIVACY Mathura-Vrindavan Development Authority (MVDA) thinks that use of personal information to be a critical element in enabling the Internet to reach its potential as a serious tool for personal and official activities. As the Internet affects our lives in a number of ways, MVDA is committed to respect privacy of user of this website. In order to demonstrate our organization commitment to privacy we have made policy of privacy. Generally, one can visit our website without telling us who you are or revealing any personal information about yourself. We capture your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and / or to administer our Web site. This gives us an idea of which parts of our site users are visiting. We do save IP addresses to avoid fraudulent entries. This means that a user session will be tracked to limited extent, but in general user will be anonymous. There are times, however, when we may need information from you, such as your name, home or business address and e-mail address. When MVDA receives information about your session or about you, we may use it for research or to improve and secure our site and the services we offer you. We will ask you to enter your mobile number before making online payment and this mobile no. Can be used to send you, information of amount deposited by user and for giving some other important information. If you do not want us or our partners to contact you, you can request us for not disturbing you on mobile and MVDA, Mathura will endeavour to respect your request in writing to the possible extent. This site contains links to other sites. MVDA is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Web sites.